

COOKIE NOTICE

What is the purpose of this document?

This Cookie Notice gives a brief explanation of what cookies are and how we use them. It is important that you read this notice to understand the type of cookies we use, the information we collect using cookies and how that information is used. We may update this notice at any time.

Niche Platform Limited (Niche) is registered in England & Wales at 12 Waterside Court, Albany Street, Newport NP20 5NT with company registration number 12006398.

For further information on how we use and keep your personal data secure, please read our privacy notice.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files stored on the browser or your computer's hard drive. Cookies can be stored temporarily for a single session only, or longer if it is a persistent cookie.

Session cookies are deleted from your device when closing your browser. Persistent cookies will remain stored until deleted or until they reach their expiry date.

Cookies generally work to make your browsing experience as smooth as possible and are commonly used to maintain the state of a browser session.

How do we use cookies?

We use cookies to enhance your browsing experience by analysing how you use our site, which in turn helps us to troubleshoot any problems, monitor our own performance and provide users with the most commonly sought-after content.

We use the following cookies:

- Performance improvement cookies – These allow us to track the number of visitors as well as monitor how they use our site. This helps us improve the site's overall navigation and the way the site works, by ensuring that users can find what they are looking for.
- Necessary cookies – These cookies are required for the intended functionality of our site and are used to show the correct content at any given time. For example, on your first visit to our site, you will be shown a confirmation message regarding our use of cookies. Once accepted, a cookie is stored to tell us that we should not show this message anymore. Without these cookies, parts of our site may not work as intended.

You can find more information on cookies here: <http://www.aboutcookies.org/>

How do you change cookie preferences or block cookies?

Internet browsers offer the option to accept cookies or not. Generally, your browser will offer you the choice to accept, refuse or delete all cookies, or those from specific websites. Each browser's website or documentation should contain instructions on how to enable this.

Please note: If you block cookies from our website, you may be unable to access all or part of our website. Certain functions and pages will not work in the usual way.

Changes to the cookie notice

We may occasionally update this notice. If any significant changes are made, a notification will be made available on our website.
